Dear Sir/Madam,

REF: Invitation of the 37th International Annual Meeting in Pharmaceutical Sciences (IAMPS37): Foster Integrated Pharmaceutical Sciences for all

On behalf of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Chulalongkorn University, we cordially invite you to our international conference that will take place via the online platform (ZOOM Webinar) on March 24-25, 2022

This annual conference has continually arranged since 1982 with the purpose of giving an opportunity for academics, scientists, researchers, graduate students, etc. from various institutes to communicate and share their works, knowledge, and experiences. There will be a series of keynote presentations, oral (pitch) and poster sessions regarding three areas: 1) Pharmaceutical chemistry and natural products; 2) Pharmaceutical technology and biopharmaceutical sciences; and 3) Clinical and social/administrative pharmacy.

For more information regarding awards, schedules, registration and so on, please visit <http://cu-amps.weebly.com/> or scan the QR code below.

If you have any questions or concerns about this conference, please contact the Office for Research Affairs Email: research@pharm.chula.ac.th or the Office for Continuing Education Unit, Email: CE@pharm.chula.ac.th Phone: +66-2218-8266.

We hope to see you.

Our best regards,

IAMPS37
